Declaration

I accept that mountaineering is an inherently dangerous activity and risk of serious injury or even death can not be completely eliminated. I agree to abide by instructions and decisions made by the instructor, regarding the safety of people taking part in the course. I have read and agree to the conditions of booking attached and enclose my deposit. The information I have provided here is accurate and I do not know of any reason relating to my health that may affect the planned activities:

A contract will exist between yourself and Hightimes Mountaineering from the date of the confirmation receipt. Could you please ensure that everyone in your party completes a booking form and reads the terms and conditions.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Your booking must be accompanied by a deposit of 20% of the course cost, or if booked within 1 month of the course start date, by the full payment. The deposit (20%) is refundable up to 1 month prior to the start date and the full amount is refundable up to fourteen days prior to the start date. When Hightimes has received payment and checked all information contained within your booking form, your booking will be accepted. You will then be sent a booking confirmation receipt, together with further course information.
2. If the balance is not paid by two weeks prior to the course date, Hightimes reserves the right to cancel your booking without refund of the deposit.
3. If Hightimes has to cancel a booking they shall refund all monies or the client can re-book on a different date or course. If Hightimes cancels a course he will not be liable for any expenses which you may have incurred as a result of your booking or in expectation of the trip taking place.
4. Whilst instructors maintain high professional standards of client care and safety, you must realise and accept that mountaineering and climbing are activities which carry a danger of personal injury or even death, as they can take place in remote and potentially hazardous mountain terrain. All clients must be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement in such activities.
5. All information contained within the Hightimes website and other publicity is for guidance only. Whilst making every effort to ensure accuracy, Hightimes cannot be responsible for any inaccuracies or alterations beyond his control.
6. Although instructors adhere to planned itineraries wherever possible, changes may occur to both travel and instructional itineraries due to external factors beyond their control. In particular, the instructor has total discretion to alter programs at any time in the interests of client safety, mountain or weather conditions. In the event that changes are made to the itinerary any extra costs will be met by the client.
7. If you have a complaint about the service you receive at any point during the course, you must notify the instructor involved as soon as possible to give them the opportunity to rectify the situation to a mutual agreement. If the complaint is unresolved to your satisfaction during the trip put the details in writing to Martin Ibbotson within 28 days.
8. By making your booking it implies that you understand and accept the booking conditions and agree to abide by them. The person booking the course must ensure that other participants read and accept these conditions.

Please retain this copy of the booking conditions for your records.
